Alabama-Israel: A Long History

The History

The state of Alabama has a long history of strong support for the state of Israel. In 1943, Alabama led the nation as the first, and possibly only, state in America to officially call for the establishment of the Jewish state and homeland. The unanimous joint resolution passed both state houses five years before Israel was reborn as a nation, urging both the United States and the United Nations to action. This call came in the midst of World War II, when the axis powers were not only waging world war against America and Europe, but also seeking the mass murder and systematic extermination of the Jews of Europe.

In the 70 years since that initial resolution, the state of Alabama has repeatedly sought to stand with Israel in times of aggression including official and public response - a unanimous joint resolution in 2002 urging support for the state of Israel after terror attacks, a proclamation from the governor in 2006 to stand with Israel, statements of support from Alabama state and congressional leaders in 2012, among other. In addition, state-to-state cooperation including sister cities, a cooperative trade agreement (1997), and a special 33rd anniversary celebration of the rebirth of the state of Israel hosted at the Alabama Governor's mansion in 1981 are but a glimpse of a deep commitment shared among the people of Alabama for the state of Israel and her people.

Alabama Governor Robert Bentley privately and publicly affirmed his support and admiration for Israel, issued a statement supporting Israel's actions. "Alabama stands with Israel and recognizes Israel's right to defend herself against these attacks," said the Governor. "A few days ago, I met personally with the Israeli Deputy Foreign Minister and the Consul General. I shared with them my strong support for Israel's right to exist as a Jewish state in its ancient homeland. I gave my support to the Israeli people and recognized their right to live in peace and security," he added. "Alabama has a long history of supporting Israel. In 1943, five years before Israel became a nation, Alabama passed a resolution unanimously supporting the establishment of a Jewish state," he noted. "Our support remains strong today, and I am proud to stand with Israel."

U.S. Rep. Robert Aderholt, of Alabama's Fourth District, which includes Jasper and Anniston, also issued a statement. "No country should have to face the unjustified attacks Israel has faced without having the absolute right to defend itself and protect its people," he said. "I remain a staunch supporter of the United States' partnership with Israel and I believe we should stand with Israel and against the terrorists of Hamas and other radical groups," Congressman Aderholt added. "I hope and pray that this senseless violence ends immediately and that peace can be reached."

US Rep. Mo Brooks, of Alabama's Fifth District, which includes Huntsville, posted a statement. "I stand with our close ally Israel, and with her people during this violent and horrific attack on innocent civilians," he wrote, referring to the Palestinian rocket attacks on civilians in southern Israel.

COMMENDING THE NATION OF ISRAEL FOR ITS RELATIONS WITH THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AND WITH THE STATE OF ALABAMA.

WHEREAS, Israel has been granted her lands under and through the oldest recorded deed as reported in the Old Testament, a tome of scripture held sacred and revered by Jew and Christian alike, as the acts and words of God; and

WHEREAS, God has never rescinded his grant of said lands; and

WHEREAS, along with the grant of said lands to the Jewish people, God provided for the non-Jewish residents of the land in commanding that governance must be in one law for all without drawing distinction between Jewish and non-Jewish citizens, as contained in Leviticus 24:22; and

WHEREAS, the Nation of Israel declared its independent control and governance of said lands on May 14, 1948, with the goal of reestablishing its God-given lands as a homeland for the Jewish people; and

WHEREAS, the roots of Israel and the roots of the United States are so intertwined that it is difficult to separate one from the other under the word and protection of almighty God; and

WHEREAS, those same haters of Israel also hate and seek to destroy the United States of America; and

WHEREAS, the State of Alabama and the nation of Israel have enjoyed cordial and mutually beneficial relations since 1948, a friendship that continues to strengthen with each passing year; now therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That by this resolution, we commend the nation of Israel for its relations with the United States of America and with the State of Alabama.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That the members of this body support Israel in its natural and God-given right of self-governance and self-defense upon its own lands, recognizing that Israel is neither an attacking force nor an occupier of the lands of others, and that peace can be afforded the region only through a united Israel governed under one law for all people.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of each of Alabama's sister states within the United States of America with the request and recommendation of this body that a similar resolution to that stated herein be proposed within their respective bodies.
