

Israel Leadership Institute

“For those who have God in their heart...who have the passion and the ability to participate in the creation of a new nation - this is the path to take”

David Ben Gurion,
Sde-Boker (1955)

Mission

The Israel Leadership Institute identifies, recruits, trains, mentors and nurtures the future generation of Israeli leaders. The Institute also bears responsibility for the complete integration of its graduates in the Israeli leadership mosaic: local and municipal; public and political; economic and social.

Leadership,

It's not a title. It's a behavior. We live it.

- Why the ILI?

Thinking Leadership

Leadership remains one of the most challenging goals for the Israeli nation today. While the State is increasingly identified with innovation, initiative and creative thinking, there is a growing need to invest in the development and training of future generations of leaders in Israel – in order to meet the numerous challenges this small nation faces.

Thinking Leadership

The mission of the Israel leadership Institute (ILI):

- Identify, recruit, train and equip the best potential young Leaders in Israel.
- Develop an updated leadership standard for Israel: guided by Biblical, Zionist and Democratic values, inspired by excellence.
- Follow up with, mentor and integrate the graduates into the Israeli leadership mosaic.

Thinking Leadership

The location: Sderot, on the Israel-Gaza border:

A symbol of Zionism and heroism; of commitment and courage; of integrity and morals.

Thinking Leadership

A unique methodology emerges...While introducing the newest state of the art leadership methods, and applied techniques of dealing with the ongoing changes in the globalized world from an Israeli perspective, the ILI introduces a unique understanding of leadership in the course of intellectual and practical experiences.

Based on a unique methodology developed exclusively by the ILI experts, the training method is based on the Multi-Facet Approach which identifies two main dimensions: The Self-concept of the leader · Leadership Tools.

At the ILI, developing the leader's mental self-definition (self-concept) is imperative to acquiring the requisite skills and tools a leader must have to ensure an excellent performance.
